62	140032	TR	ISTANBUL MODERN SANAT MUZESİ İKTİSADI İŞLETMESİ	BLACK EYES	• BENAKI MUSEUM, GR • IRISH MUSEUM OF MODERN ART, IE	Black eyes is an exhibition on shadows, shadow theatre and silhouettes, based on old and contemporary folk tales and on simple narratives expressed with economy means. Heart of the exhibition is the shadow theatre from Turkey and Greece, and its character Karagöz, a trickster that lives through hundreds of adventures/misadventures with a varied set of character. this exhibition will explore the formal analogies and the conceptual references that a new narrative spirit in contemporary art has with shadow plays and, conversely, the influence this traditional art form has had on the world of contemporary art in recent years. The works on exhibition will be selected for their specific affinities to the world, to the narrative structure, and to the modes of Turkish and Greek shadow plays.	200.000,00	26,36

Taking a non-chronological approach, this show looks at the way the human form has been combined with those of the animal and vegetable worlds over the last 100 years. It focuses on how the fantastical, mythological, mechanical and biological all re-emerge in a post-Darwinian age. As a project, the travelling exhibition Against Nature functions as a vehicle for activity outside of the 3 exhibitions. The project attempts to mobilize art objects, and art historical & museological information & knowledge, passing and interconnecting these all between different countries, people & institutions. The presentation of trends in arts that have never had a chance to become a part of mainstream of the 20th c. arts. The idea lying behind this project is to rescue from oblivion both the artists & their works that were excluded from the mainstream due to geopolitical reasons, to preserve the works that were unluckily created too early or too late to prevent the process nowadays called exclusion, which refers to the fringes of time & space, from taking place.	61.015,00	50,00
