FUNDING

PROJECT FUNDING

With the project funding program The Committee for Architecture wish to encourage surprising and thought provoking projects, projects with an ambition to push the boundaries of the field of architecture and which critically and ethically is concerned with the role architecture plays in relation to its surroundings and the environment and the significance of its aesthetic dimension.

Who may apply:

Architects and studios (and institutions working with architects) can apply for specific projects both internationally and in Denmark.

Please note:

If applying as a cross-disciplinary group the application should come from the architect.

RESIDENCIES

Can Lis – Jørn Utzon's House

The committee provides opportunities for residencies at Jørn Utzon's house Can Lis on Mallorca.

Who may apply:

Danish architects, cross-disciplinary groups (including architects) and others with relation to the Danish architecture scene.

What can you apply for:

Residency at Can Lis for periods of either 13 or 26 days
A supplementary travels grant to cover travel expenses.

Please note:

If applying as a cross-disciplinary group the application should come from the architect.

TRAVEL GRANTS

Travel and Grants

With the Travel and grants funding program The Committee for Architecture wish to encourage cross-disciplinary dialogue and inspiration. The committee will thus welcome applications from groups and individuals that wish to explore and research relevant issues within the field of architecture, such as sustainability and social inclusion, by seeking knowledge and inspiration abroad.

Who may apply:

Architects and cross-disciplinary groups (including architects) can apply for travel grants.

What can you apply for:

Travel grants to cover travel and accommodation.

Please note:

If applying as a cross-disciplinary group the application should come from the architect.

Purpose of the program:

The Danish Arts Foundation's Committee for Architecture Grants and Project Funding work to foster the international cultural and artistic development within the field of architecture as well as promotion of Danish architecture and construction. The committee is involved in developing the Danish pavilion at the Venice Biennale 2018, and can get involved in travelling exhibitions.

COLLABORATIVE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE DANISH MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND THE DANISH MINISTRY OF CULTURE

CONTACT PERSON:

Agnethe Skovbye Nissen, askon@slks.dk, Agency for Culture and Palaces

INTERNATIONAL CULTURAL EXCHANGE PROJECTS

Who may apply?

The collaborative agreement which exists between the Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Danish Ministry of Culture is designed to promote Danish international cultural exchange.

The funding scheme administered under this agreement is open only to institutions covered by the agreement.

International partners interested in initiating collaboration on international cultural exchange can, however, contact their local Danish mission. It is up to the Danish mission to apply for funding.

Funding goes towards cross-sectoral international cultural exchange projects within the branches of the arts covered by the Ministry of Culture: Film, Architecture, Crafts and Design, Literature, Music, Visual Arts and Performing Arts.

Purpose of the program:

Grants available under the Collaborative Agreement can be sought by partners of the Collaborative Agreement for international cultural exchange projects designed to strengthen:

1. Development and renewal of Danish arts and culture
2. Promotion of Denmark as a country
3. Furthering of cultural export
4. Furthering of intercultural dialogue

When assessing the application, emphasis will be placed on the project being reflected in the areas of action of the International Cultural Panel's 2017-2020 strategy. Furthermore the application should reflect the International Culture Panel's principles of quality, local interest, long-term perspective, stakeholder cooperation and communication.

Deadline:

The Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Danish Ministry of Culture assess applications for grants of over DKK 100,000. With applications for grants of over DKK 100,000 you will be notified of the steering committee's decision within 12 weeks after the deadline. Next deadline is 31st of October 2018.

Applications for grants of up to DKK 100,000 are assessed by the Danish Agency for Culture and Palaces, and assess the applications via solicit statements from the relevant art centres. These statements will be taken into account when assessing applications. Applications for grants of under DKK 100,000 will be dealt with within four weeks.
