

Partner search form

For Creative Europe project applications

Call	Support to European Cooperation Projects
Strand or category	Small Scale Cooperation Projects
	Medium Scale Cooperation Projects
	Large Scale Cooperation Projects

Cultural operator - who are you?

Name of organisation	Today Art Initiative
Country	Armenia
Organisation website	Todayart.weebly.com
Contact person	Lilit, tai.todayart@gmail.com
Organisation type	non-governmental organisation
Scale of the organization
PIC number	946034114

Aims and activities of the organisation "Today" Art Initiative (TAI) has founded in 2014 year. The aim of the organisation is to develop contemporary art activities and create a platform for experimental and innovative art practices and exchanges. TAI provides opportunities to reflect society's issues and invetigate today's life problems localy and international. The aim of exchanges and residencies is to create the dialogue between art practitioners in larger contextual level such as identity, community, nationality. Our NGO's activities are: development of democracy, human rights sustainability. According to this we have following goals and objectives: Our goals and objectivities include the development of contemporart at scence in Armenia and emphasize the activity of it in rural areas. Develop artists in residency program in Armenia with exchange of international artists and bring the new innovative medias in Armenia as collaborative art practices . Provide educational, cultural, information exchanges among youth in Armenian rural areas and other countries. For the realization of all these, we are going to organize different local and international exhibitions, festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, no make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia. It called "Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukr	Name of organisation	Today Art Initiative organisation organisation is to develop contemporary art activites and create a platform for experimental and innovative art practices and exchanges. TAI provides opportunities to reflect society's issues and inveltigate today's life problems localy and international. The aim of exchanges and residencies is to create the dialogue between art practitioners in larger contextual level such as identity, community, nationality. Our NGO's activities are: development of democracy, human rights sustainability. According to this we have following goals and objectives: Our goals and objectivities include the development of contemporart art scence in Armenia and emphasize the activity of it in rural areas. Develop artists in residency program in Armenia with exchage of international artists and bring the new innovative medias in Armenia as collaborative art practices. For the realization of all these, we are going to organize different local and international exhibitions, festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3 through our non-formal educational ant projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, It called "Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaet.), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition hed in one of the main art institute of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countrie platform for experimental and innovative art practices and exchanges. TAI provides opportunities to reflect society's issues and invertigate today's life problems localy and international. The aim of exchanges and residencies is to create the dialogue between art practititioners in larger contextual level such as identity, community, nationality. Our NGO's activities are: development of democracy, human rights sustainability. According to this we have following goals and objectives: Our goals and objectivities include the development of contemporant art scence in Armenia and emphasize the activity of it in rural areas. Develop artists in residency program in Armenia with exchage of international artists and bring the new innovative medias in Armenia as collaborative art practices. Provide educational, cultural, information exchanges among youth in Armenian rural areas and other countries. For the realization of all these, we are going to organize different local and international exhibitions, festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia. It called "Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Ar
 TAI provides opportunities to reflect society's issues and invetigate today's life problems localy and international. The aim of exchanges and residencies is to create the dialogue between art practitioners in larger contextual level such as identity, community, nationality. Our NGO's activities are: development of democracy, human rights sustainability. According to this we have following goals and objectives: Our goals and objectivities include the development of contemporart art scence in Armenia and emphasize the activity of it in rural areas. Develop artists in residency program in Armenia with exchage of international artists and bring the new innovative medias in Armenia as collaborative art practices . Provide educational, cultural, information exchanges among youth in Armenian rural areas and other countries. For the realization of all these, we are going to organize different local and international exhibitions, festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, thick & Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaet), arround 60 artists sent their original art troxicts in frese 2014 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2014 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2014 we are running artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI als	organisation today's life problems localy and international. The aim of exchanges and residencies is to create the dialogue between art practititioners in larger contextual level such as identity, community, nationality. Our NGO's activities are: development of democracy, human rights sustainability. According to this we have following goals and objectives: Our goals and objectivities include the development of contemporat art scence in Armenia and emphasize the activity of it in rural areas. Develop artists in residency program in Armenia with exchage of international artists and bring the new innovative medias in Armenia as collaborative art practices. Provide educational, cultural, information exchanges among youth in Armenia nural areas and other countries. For the realization of all these, we are going to organize different local and international exhibitions. festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects, in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational ant projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the word more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, thungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethoipia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc.), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia. Artists Union. Since 2014 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2 larger contextual level such as identify, comunity, nationality. Our NGO's activities are: development of democracy, human rights sustainability. According to this we have following goals and objectives: Our goals and objectivities include the development of contemporant art scence in Armenia and emphasize the activity of it in rural areas. Develop artists in residency program in Armenia with exchage of international artists and bring the new innovative medias in Armenia as collaborative art practices . Provide educational, cultural, information exchanges among youth in Armenian rural areas and other countries. For the realization of all these, we are going to organize different local and international exhibitions, festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbia. et), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange to by giving opportunity to local artists torm Sice 2014 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange to by giving opportunity to local artists tort areas of the main art institute of Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange to by giving opportunity to local artists tort areas and since 2019 in rural areas Our NGO's activities are: development of democracy, human rights sustainability. According to this we have following goals and objectives: Our goals and objectivities include the development of contemporant art scence in Armenia and emphasize the activity of it in rural areas. Develop artists in residency program in Armenia with exchage of international artists and bring the new innovative medias in Armenia as collaborative art practices . Provide educational, cultural, information exchanges among youth in Armenia rural areas and other countries. For the realization of all these, we are going to organize different local and international exhibitions, festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, the alted. "Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. In different technique to Armenia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc.), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main at institute of Armenia. Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc.), arround 60 artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we are running artists for USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugal. etc TAI also supports yout in their intellectual, cultural life of the society and to revean and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. The achibition held in one of the main at institute of Armenia. Stares to travel another EU countries. Since		and residencies is to create the dialogue between art practittioners in sustainability. According to this we have following goals and objectives: Our goals and objectivities include the development of contemporart art scence in Armenia and emphasize the activity of it in rural areas. Develop artists in residency program in Armenia with exchage of international artists and bring the new innovative medias in Armenia as collaborative art practices . Provide educational, cultural, information exchanges among youth in Armenian rural areas and other countries. For the realization of all these, we are going to organize different local and international exhibitions, festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, Mich was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, Kich was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, Rong, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaet), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia-Rong. Moreaco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaet), arround 60 artists sent weal another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugal.ete TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential, thus to promote participation of youth in the cinclife a objectives: Our goals and objectivities include the development of contemporart art scence in Armenia and emphasize the activitiy of it in rural areas. Develop artists in residency program in Armenia with exchage of international artists and bring the new innovative medias in Armenia as collaborative art practices. Provide educational, cultural, information exchanges among youth in Armenian rural areas and other countries. For the realization of all these, we are going to organize different local and international exhibitions, festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, thich was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, the 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, the 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, the 2014 STAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, the 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, the 2014 STAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Moroco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc.), arround 60 artists sent their original artwork
 Our goals and objectivities include the development of contemporart art scence in Armenia and emphasize the activitiy of it in rural areas. Develop artists in residency program in Armenia with exchage of international artists and bring the new innovative medias in Armenia as collaborative art practices. Provide educational, cultural, information exchanges among youth in Armenian rural areas and other countries. For the realization of all these, we are going to organize different local and international exhibitions, festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, the cale dia "Art for Peace" and the main aim awas to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbia. etc.), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. We ainto make it as exchange to by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Poland, Hong they evelopment, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in the intellectual, cultural and physical development to recet necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in the civic life and be citizen artis art scence in Armenia and emphasize the activitiy of it in rural areas. Develop artists in residency program in Armenia with exchage of international artists and bring the new innovative medias in Armenia as collaborative art practices . Provide educational, cultural, information exchanges among youth in Armenian rural areas and other countries. For the realization of all these, we are going to organize different local and international exhibitions, festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia. It called "Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Walae, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange to by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural and physical Develop artists in residency program in Armenia with exchage of international artists and bring the new innovative medias in Armenia as collaborative art practices. Provide educational, cultural, information exchanges among youth in Armenian rural areas and other countries. For the realization of all these, we are going to organize different local and international exhibitions, festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, thay, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, the cace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition in one of the main art insitute of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Broce 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life a international artists and bring the new innovative medias in Årmenia as collaborative art practices. Provide educational, cultural, information exchanges among youth in Armenian rural areas and other countries. For the realization of all these, we are going to organize different local and international exhibitions, festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia. It called "Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morcoco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc.), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc. TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural ard physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential i, thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and as collaborative art practices. Provide educational, cultural, information exchanges among youth in Armenian rural areas and other countries. For the realization of all these, we are going to organize different local and international exhibitions, festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia. It called "Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia. Artists Union. Since 2019 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists form USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and Provide educational, cultural, information exchanges among youth in Armenian rural areas and other countries. For the realization of all these, we are going to organize different local and international exhibitions, festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, trans, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc.), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange to by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural and physical Armenian rural areas and other countries. For the realization of all these, we are going to organize different local and international exhibitions, festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, Wick was to gromote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and
and international exhibitions, festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia. It called "Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia. Artists Union. Since 2014 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and		Armenian rural areas and other countries.
festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, it called "Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia- Artists Union. Since 2014 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia. It called "Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia- Artists Union. Since 2014 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia. It called "Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia. It called "Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and 3through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them to believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia. It called "Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and believe that they are a full member of a society, and has an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia, it called "Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia. It called "Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc.), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia- Artists Union. Since 2014 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia. It called "Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia- Artists Union. Since 2014 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia. It called "Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia- Artists Union. Since 2014 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and
"Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia- Artists Union. Since 2014 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia- Artists Union. Since 2014 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia- Artists Union. Since 2014 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and		via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia- Artists Union. Since 2014 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and Ukraine, Iran, Serbiaetc), arround 60 artists sent their original artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia- Artists Union. Since 2014 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and artworks in different technique to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institute of Armenia- Artists Union. Since 2014 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and of the main art institute of Armenia- Artists Union. Since 2014 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and Since 2014 we are running artists in residency program in Yerevan and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential, thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential, thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugaletc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential, thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential, thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential, thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential, thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and active youth.
In order to promote participation of youth in the civic society, be active artists/citizens and in various types of social youth activities, the organization took part in different youth projects of EU, where the		organization took part in different youth projects of EU, where the most important projects are Youth in Action and Erasmus+.		most important projects are Youth in Action and Erasmus+ .
Role of the organisation in Project Partner	Role of the organisation in	Project Partner the project
	Previous EU grants	Erasmus projects, Creative Europe
Previous EU grants Erasmus projects, Creative Europe	received

Proposed Creative Europe project – to which project are you looking for partners?

Sector or field	Contemporary art , artists in residency , cultural heritage, visual arts, literature, architecture, arts and new technology, Description or summary of	We would like to be partners and we are developing a project the proposed project	of Rural Art residencies with European countries. Please, get in contact if you work on rural art residency projects Partners currently involved in the project	All eligible countries

Partners searched – which type of partner are you looking for?

From country or region	All eligible countries Preferred field of expertise
Please get in contact no later than	1 st of December 2023

Projects searched – are you interested in participating in other EU projects as a partner?

Yes / no	Yes
Which kind of projects are	Small Scale Cooperation Projects
you looking for?	Medium Scale Cooperation Projects
	Large Scale Cooperation Projects

Publication of partner search

This partner search can be published?*	Yes
--	-----