Danish Initiative on Digitalization: Vision and Ambition

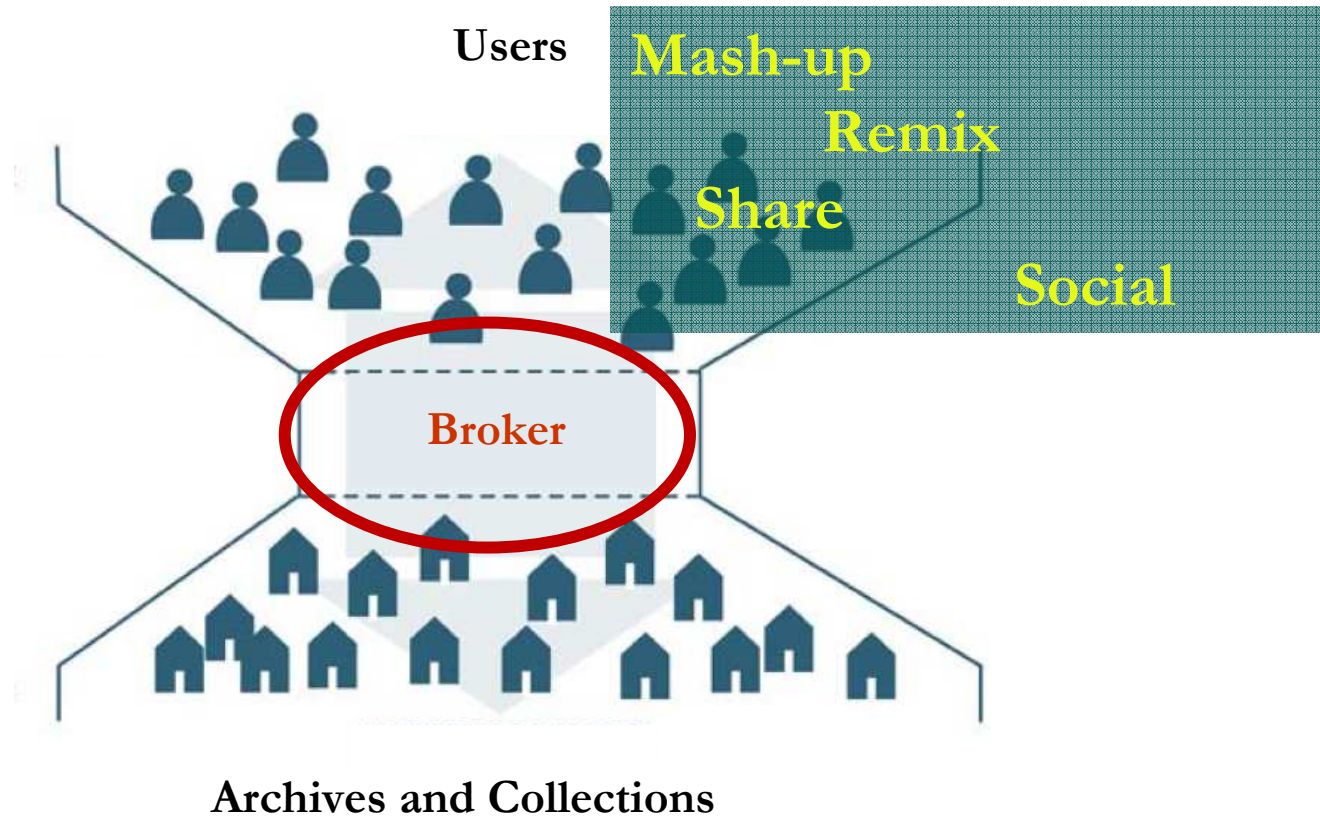

- The digital cultural heritage must be activated to ensure that the socio-economical potential of the collections is realized
- The ambition is that at least 20% of the Danish population makes regular use of the cultural heritage

Europæisk Brooker

To the right of the logo, there is a navigation menu with links for "My Europeana", "About us", "Communities", "Partners", "Thought lab", and a "Choose a language" dropdown menu. Below this menu, a text block reads: "Paintings, music, films and books from Europe's galleries, libraries, archives and museums. Find out more".

A search bar is located below the text, with a "Search" button and a help icon. Below the search bar is a link for "Advanced search".

Below the search bar is a banner for an online exhibition titled "ART NOUVEAU: AN ONLINE EXHIBITION". The banner features a golden Art Nouveau style illustration of a woman surrounded by foliage. There are four numbered tabs (1, 2, 3, 4) above the illustration, with tab 1 being the active one.

At the bottom of the page, there are four columns of interactive elements:

- Share your ideas: A "share" button with a plus icon.
- People are currently thinking about: A list of items: "Berlin Wall", "Manchester United", and "dÅ¼rer", each with a right-pointing arrow.
- Explore and navigate: A "Browse through time" button with a right-pointing arrow.
- New content: A link that says "From our partner museums, archives, libraries and audio-visual collections" with a right-pointing arrow.

The browser's status bar at the bottom shows "Internet | Protected Mode: On" and a zoom level of "100%".
